

COME FORTH

Written By: Marlene Pelt

Published By: Yet to come Publishing/BMI

ADM. BY: Gaither Copyright Management

479-629-1322---479-629-5498

www.marlenepelt.com

tommarlene@cox.net

Jesus was in, a country when, some men came rushing in Lazarus is sick, you must come quick.
Shouting voices of frantic men.
But Jesus did not worry or even hurry on his way
Then four days late, they thought he came Until they heard, the master say

Chorus:

Come forth my child rise-up and stand
Come forth my child hear my command
Loosen the rags that have you bound
Cause death no longer can hold you down
Come forth my child, Come Forth, my child

For many years, I walked alone, Darkness everywhere
I had know hope, know peace within
My life was in despair
That's when he heard me praying while in a sinner's grave I laid
Standing at the tomb of my life
I heard the Master say.

Chorus:

In that final moment, when, the trumpet of God will sound
That shout will come, from heaven to wake,
Saints left in the ground
But don't you be discouraged or even dread that coming day
Cause whether you're alive or in that grave
You'll hear the master say

Chorus:

Tag: Come Forth my child, Come Forth my child, Come Forth my Child
Rise-up and stand
Come Forth.

D.O.C. 2004